Welcome to David & Tricia Durston

Thank you for making us welcome at St Anne's. The Sunday morning Eucharist has become our home for Sunday worship. We moved to Bristol last September because we wanted to be nearer to our daughter Naomi and son-in-law Marty and our grandchildren Wren and Amos.

We have come to Bristol after thirty years living in the Salisbury area, mostly in the city. We worshipped at the Cathedral where David was a Canon, and Tricia, among several other things, led a children's group called SOCKS (Salisbury's Older Cathedral Kids).

Towards the end of his ministry David was Rector of a Team Ministry serving twelve parishes in the Wylde and Till Valley, and we lived in Steeple Langford. After this we returned to live in Salisbury until last September.
