Godly Play Space in the church

We now have a Godly Play space in the church where there are some story boxes, books and pens and paper and other resources to explore and use. The space will be set up and available when we don't have a Godly Play group. During other services, anyone is welcome to use the resource.

Please put everything away at the end of the service.

Exploring Christianity. Together!

If you are a Christian who wants to grow deeper in faith, the next module of Exploring Christianity starts in the autumn and considers the New Testament. Who wrote it and why? What was life like in Jesus' time? How can we understand the variation in the gospels? Who was Paul and why did he write so much?

There are three groups that meet to share their learning across the diocese (in Swindon, Bristol and by zoom). As one participant said, 'I have been inspired!' while another said, 'It has given me confidence in what I believed.' The course is being updated so, for current information, email the team here.

Led by the Rev'd David Babbington—Dean of Pastoral Studies at the College of the Resurrection, Mirfield, founding pastor of Emmaus LGBTQ+ Christian Asylum Seeker and Refugee Support Group, and a member of the College of Archbishop's Evangelists.
