East Bristol Mission Area ~ Conversations on Mission

The new East Bristol Mission Area is bringing together four communities in a new partnership and we're keen to explore what mission looks in East Bristol and what we can learn from one another.

This autumn, people from Easton Christian Family Centre, Hazelnut Community, All Hallows and St Anne's are invited to join a series of conversations exploring mission in our churches and neighbourhoods.

We'll share our experiences, listen to different perspectives and use the Five Marks of Mission to help us think together about how we can take part in God's work in East Bristol.

You don't need any special knowledge or experience—just an interest in finding out more about mission and a willingness to join the conversation.

The group will be led by Emma Langley and David Durston.

5 Monday evenings, 7.30–9pm 12 October–16 November

(excluding the Monday of half-term - 26th October)

St Anne's Vicarage, 75 Greenbank Road

(between St Anne's Church and Greenbank Cemetery)

Places are limited. To find out more or express an interest, please contact David Durston: david.durston36@btinternet.com
